

Bottles can CHANGE LIVES

Hello!

I'm collecting used bottles and cans to raise funds for The Salvation Army to help Aussies doing it tough. Now more than ever, new members of our community and from all walks of life are reaching out to The Salvation Army. Many for the first time.

The good news is you can help simply by donating to the "Bottles CAN Change Lives" recycling appeal. Not only will this benefit the environment, but it will also contribute to assisting Aussies experiencing financial hardship.

If you have any empty bottles and cans for me to collect, please leave them here:

Or text me on: _____
to arrange collection.

Thank you for your support.
